

Catherine Lett

Catherine studied with Mateja Marinkovic at the Purcell School. She took part in masterclasses with members of the Brodsky Quartet, Robert Cohen and Emmanuel Hurvitz.

She performed in the Purcell Room with the school orchestra. She also played with Sir Simon Rattle at Queen Elizabeth Hall. She continued her studies with Jack Glickman at the Guildhall School of Music And Drama where her love of chamber music was born. Whilst at Guildhall she also took part in masterclasses with Sylvia Rosenberg.

Her leading and solo experience began with several Vivaldi Concerti (including the Four Seasons) with the Belmont Ensemble of London, Meditation from Thais with the City of Canterbury Symphony Orchestra and a tour of Europe leading the Pressburg Chamber Soloists playing Czardas by Monti among other things.

Her interest in music education so she began teaching in schools and helping to run art workshops in schools with the Wildest Dreams Project and the Wigmore Hall Chamber Challenge. in schools and helping to run art workshops in schools with the Wildest Dreams Project and the Wigmore Hall Chamber Challenge.

In 2012 Catherine met the pianist Angela Zanders with whom she has been giving regular recitals around the UK since then.

Hello!
I'm Catherine
Violin tutor

I can't wait to see what we can create together
in the future.

